DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments filed on July 20, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Drawings

The replacement drawing received on July 20, 2007 is objected to because the piston 7, which is shown in section, is not hatched. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 5 to 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Due to the poor drawings and lack of a detailed description, it is not possible to ascertain the structure and manner of operation of the pump. Referring to figure 1, since the piston is not hatched, its structure cannot be clearly ascertained. Is it tubular with open ends? Is it tubular with a closed right end? The specification states that "The movement of the piston 8 forces fuel through the check valve assembly 22 ...". If the piston is tubular, then it clearly cannot pump. If the right end of the piston is closed, then how can fluid flow from the left end of the piston to the chamber upstream of the check valve 22? These deficiencies would impose an undue burden on one of ordinary skill in the art to make and use the invention. Applicant merely alleges that the claims are enabled, without furnishing any clear description of the structure and operation of the pump.

Claims 5 to 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are:

In claim 5, the piston assembly, fuel filter assembly, coil assembly, piston end cap and machine ball are recited in a structurally disconnected manner.

In claim 6, the reset spring and check valve are recited in a structurally disconnected manner.

Art Unit: 3746

In claim 7, the filter cap, filter spring, filter and O-ring are recited in a structurally disconnected manner.

Applicant's arguments make reference to MPEP 2172.01 (1st para.) which states that "A claim which omits matter disclosed to be essential to the invention as described in the specification or in other statements of record may be rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as not enabling. However, attention is directed to MPEP 2172.01 (2nd para.) which states that "In addition, a claim which fails to interrelate essential elements of the invention as defined by applicant(s) in the specification may be rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, for failure to point out and distinctly claim the invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7 to 24 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st and 2nd paragraphs, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
